

Kamalji Sahay

Founder MD&CEO of Star Union Dai-ichi Life Insurance Co.Ltd.

Kamalji is a renowned business leader in the life insurance industry. He has been the founder MD&CEO of Star Union Dai-ichi Life, a JV of Bank of India, Union Bank of India and Dai-ichi Life, Japan. He is also an Author, a prolific speaker and a leading columnist with The Financial Express. His views are published monthly in the column “Embedded Value”, The Financial Express. His first book, Contemporary Essays on Life Insurance was published in 2014. His latest book, The LIC Story: Making of India’s Best Known Brand has been published recently and is available in major book stores as well as on Amazon.

He served the Life Insurance Corporation of India for more than 30 years. He was Executive Director at LIC.. Earlier he had very successfully launched the LIC’s JV in Nepal in 2001. Later the GIC Re, India’s only reinsurance company, engaged him as a consultant to revive their life reinsurance portfolio.

Kamalji Sahay has been a visiting faculty at the IIM’s and Director on the Board of several companies since 1998. Currently he is engaged as a business launch and corporate governance consultant in Nepal as well as in India. His expertise in managing turnaround and motivating and guiding large teams to high sales and service performance is well-acknowledged in the BFSI space.