

Report on Certificate Course for Life Insurance Professionals of Nepal

Organized in collaboration with the Banking Finance Institute of Nepal (BFIN)

A Certificate Course for Life Insurance Professionals of Nepal was successfully conducted from 09 June to 12 June in collaboration with the Banking Finance Institute of Nepal (BFIN). The programme was designed to support professional development and capacity building of life insurance professionals in Nepal.

The objective of the programme was to enhance participants' understanding of key concepts and practices relevant to the life insurance sector. The certificate course aimed to provide structured learning and exposure to industry-relevant knowledge in a professional and academic setting.

The programme was conducted over four days and followed a planned schedule. Sessions were delivered by experienced faculty and resource persons with relevant domain expertise. The content was presented in a clear and systematic manner, ensuring ease of understanding for all participants.

Participants from the life insurance sector in Nepal attended the programme and actively participated in the sessions. The interactive format encouraged discussion, experience sharing, and engagement, which contributed positively to the learning environment.

The collaboration with the Banking Finance Institute of Nepal (BFIN) was instrumental in the smooth conduct of the programme. Effective coordination and logistical support ensured that the sessions were conducted as per schedule and without any operational challenges.

The training methodology included presentations, discussions, and interactive sessions. Participants were provided opportunities to ask questions and seek clarifications from the resource persons. The course content was aligned with the professional requirements of life insurance practitioners.

At the conclusion of the programme, a brief summary of the key learning outcomes was shared with the participants. Certificates of completion were awarded to those who successfully attended the programme. The programme concluded on a positive note with appreciation for the collaboration and participation.

Feedback received from participants indicated satisfaction with the overall conduct of the programme. The sessions were found to be relevant and informative. Participants expressed interest in attending similar capacity-building programmes in the future.

Overall, the Certificate Course for Life Insurance Professionals of Nepal, conducted in collaboration with the Banking Finance Institute of Nepal (BFIN) from 09 June to 12 June, was successfully completed and met its intended objectives.
