BIMTECH, Hexalog tie up

Birla Institute of Management Technology (BIMTECH) signed a three-year strategic Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) with Hexalog Technologies Private Limited to establish a Centre of Excellence (CoE) in Supply Chain & Logistics (SCL). The centre is expected to introduce industry-aligned micro-credentials and certificate programmes in areas such as AI in logistics, supply chain analytics, and digital freight management, a press release said. The partnership will result in real-world industry engagements for students through on-the-job training, internships and live consulting assignments.
